Do you like to ride ATVs? This day camp is for 8-16 year olds that want to learn more about how to have fun and be safe on ATVs. Compared to a bike crash, an ATV crash is 12 times more likely to kill a child. ATVs are involved in 38,000 injuries and 100 deaths to children each year! Camp will take place at the Jackson County Ag Complex Conference Center on Penn Avenue. Each participant will receive a carbineer compass, baseball cap, bookmark, and rider handbook at the end of the day. Registration fee is $10.00 and is due December 28th. Don’t forget to bring a bag lunch!
